

Astrology

The Emperor – Aries (March 21 – April 19)

Aries is a dominant, logical, assertive sign which means it is perfectly represented by the Emperor. Reversed, the Emperor can indicate a tendency to be unfocused, scattered and to clash with authority figures.

The Hierophant – Taurus (April 20 – May 20)

The Hierophant loves traditions, structures and tried-and-true methods for getting things done which makes it perfect for the hardworking Taurus. Reversed, the Hierophant symbolizes the tendency to become stubborn and resistant to change.

The Lovers – Gemini (May 21 – June 21)

The Lovers is a card of choices and duality, which is why it represents Gemini so well. Gemini's are social, flirtatious and loves making connections with a variety of different personalities from all walks of life. Reversed, this card represents the struggle in coming to definitive decisions.

The Chariot – Cancer (June 22 – July 22)

Those born under the sign of Cancer are highly intuitive, persistent and loyal people. These traits correspond to the motivated energy of the Chariot. Reversed, this card speaks to the tendency to be uncomfortable with letting go of control.

Strength – Leo (July 23 – Aug 22)

Bold, assertive and kind, Leo is represented by the card Strength. Leo's can be showy and flashy but their hearts are tender and compassionate. Reversed, Strength represents the tendency to find themselves in power struggles.

The Hermit –Virgo

(August 23 – September 22)

The Hermit card represents Virgo's intensely analytical, introspective nature. The Hermit is a detail-oriented perfectionist who usually prefers solitary work to collaborations. Reversed, the Hermit has a tendency to isolate themselves.

Justice – Libra

(September 23 – October 23)

Justice is the perfect tarot card to represent the zodiac sign of Libra. Moderate and kind, Libras are known for having a keen sense of right and wrong and they thrive when there is a fair balance in all areas of their lives. Reversed, the Justice card represents Libras' tendency to avoid friction at all costs. The peacekeepers of the zodiac, Libras have a natural aversion to conflict.

Death – Scorpio

(October 24 – November 21)

Death is a commonly misunderstood tarot card, and its corresponding zodiac sign Scorpio, is often perceived as being just as mysterious. Scorpios naturally embrace personal transformations with grace, which is the very essence of the Death card. Reversed, Death represents the tendency to be a bit reluctant to move on from things, especially when emotions are involved.

Temperance – Sagittarius

(November 22 – December 21)

The Temperance card corresponds with Sagittarius. Temperance is a high-minded card and nods to Sagittarius's philosophical, worldly views and ideas. Sagittarians are full of expansive abundant energy, and they want to experience absolutely everything life has to offer. As a result, the reversed can show a tendency to overindulge.

The Devil –Capricorn

(December 22 – January 19)

The Devil is the tarot card associated with Capricorn. Capricorns have a keen sense of justice, fairness and duty. As such, they are naturally aware of their shadow-selves. Like the two loosely shackled figures featured in the RWS deck Capricorns always have personal power even when it may seem otherwise. Their sheer determination can get them out of any sticky situation, which is signified by the Devil card reversed.

The Star – Aquarius

(January 20 – February 18)

Aquarius is the visionary dreamer of the zodiac making it a good representation of the hopeful energy of the Star card. Aquarius and the Star are both inspiring figures that encourage people to daydream about all the possibilities. Reversed, the Star alludes to the tendency to sometimes feel hopeless and lost.

The Moon – Pisces

(February 19 – March 20)

The Moon card is all about diving deep below the surface to get to the soft, tender heart of things. Pisces dislikes superficiality and thrives in uncharted waters. Reversed, the Moon represents the tendency to get caught up in worrisome what-ifs and become anxious.
