

MY TAROT CODE OF ETHICS

1. Confidentiality:

- I will at all times maintain client confidentiality including any personal information and anything interpreted in my readings.

2. Transparency

- I will be honest about my credentials and education and will not give advice in areas I am not qualified

- I will be sincere in all aspects of a reading, even if I can't help or don't know the answer

3. Inclusivity

- I will treat everyone with respect following the Golden Rule

- I will only read for minors if I have the direct permission from their parent or guardian

- I will do readings for friends and family

4. Expertise

- I will not let clients become dependent upon my services

- I will continue to learn and gain knowledge to better myself and my skills in the realm of tarot

5. Responsibility

- I am not a doctor or lawyer, I will not give health or legal advice but I will direct you to professionals in those areas

- I will not read for 3rd parties

- I will not predict death

6. Payment

- All costs will be agreed upon before a reading occurs

- I have a right to charge for my time but only in a professional, ethical and legal manner. I will not defraud or take advantage of anyone.

7. Self-Care

- I can refuse to do readings for those who are under the influence of drugs/alcohol or those looking to use my skills for a joke/entertainment. Please respect my work.

- I have the right to refuse to do readings if I am ill.

Susie Gourlay